IMPRESSION

sheet.

Owing to the small cost of securing the electrotypes, and the rapidity with which the work of printing can be done, surface printing is cheaper than by plate or lithographing. Better uniformity is also secured by this method.

Type set stamps, are as the name designates, are set and printed from ordinary printer's type the same method being used as general printed work.

This variety is mostly used for provisionals and are likely to be printed in small quantities, while if the issue is to be of any size, electrotypes or stereotpyes may be made from the originals. This variety is likely to show great lack of uniformity, letters being ommitted, type becoming broken, thus causing many minor varieties to show.

Embossed printing, in this method the design is sunk in the metal of the die, the printing—

In bringing to your attention my line of Packets I would like to say that they are in every respect as represented. They are clean, attractive stamps, and in buying them you will do yourself a good turn, as it is much cheaper to buy stamps in packets than any other way. It is to my interest as well as yours for me to live up to what I say, because a dissatisfied customer is a bad advertisement.

I would also like to draw your attention to my Approval Sheets of stamps. I have them arranged to suit different grades of collectors.

Odd Stamps from all countries at 50 per cent. discount.

All I ask is for you to give me a trial and see how you like them.

Cash with order. Stamps may be returned and money refunded if unsatisfactory. Remit by money order or bills, sums under fifty cents in unused stamps.

Foreign Packets

For anyone desiring a good general selection of stamps, these packets are what they should have. They contain only postage stamps in A I condition. A fine lot of King's Heads and other new issues. It is impossible for me to give you details of these packets, but when I tell you that the 3,000 variety contains stamps like Jubilee Canada, and the 4,000 packet 85 Canada Jubilee, and that the other packages are proportionately good, I need say no more. 3000 and 4000 packages are mounted

Packets of Stamps by Countries

The great advantage of buying these packets lies in the fact that you can fill up on any country you like, without getting a lot of other stamps that perhaps you do not care much about. These packets are noted for their condition, value, and moderateness of price. If you saw them you would not need any further recommendation.
